Career Skills Preparation – Ages 12 Years to Adult 0%

Before you enter the workforce, it's crucial to work on the following skills: communications (writing, speaking, and interpersonal), teamwork, analytical ability, multitasking, organization, leadership, problem-solving, tenacity, and dependability. Workers can develop these skills and values in a variety of different ways. These courses are designed to transform students into highly desirable college students and prospective employees. The key to that transformation is so important for career growth to prepare you for your journey throughout life.

These courses are designed to help students learn and develop their roles in school, at work, and in their communities. Issues surrounding harassment, diversity, and sensitivity have never been more at the forefront of the news cycle. Learning how to effectively communicate is an essential part of development throughout life. We are subject matter experts in the areas of Diversity & Sensitivity, Harassment Prevention, and Awareness, whether dealing with situations in the workplace or school, these award-winning courses and knowledge retention quizzes and assessments are meant to create, instill and sustain a culture of compliance and awareness for all. These courses and retention assessments are provided in Pulse Learning to resonate with the new generations of the learner. The quiz and assessment results may be archived and results recalled at any time in the future. This enables the users and learners to focus on additional Rooted Learning, targeted to specific underdeveloped strengths.

Active Listening

To listen actively, you have to pay attention. You can't multitask, you can't avoid eye contact, you can't assume, and you can't be formulating your response. You have to hear the information. It needs to enter your brain, and then your brain needs to think about it. It's a much more complex task than we might think. This program discusses several ways to be a better listener, and the many things that often get in the way of

02. Communicating with the C-Suite: Sending an Email

As the world becomes increasingly digital, you may find yourself communicating with upper management primarily via email. This course will help you craft and time your communication, sending the message that you're a smart, valuable employee.

In addition to the 2,500 + courses that come with your purchase, with the complimentary KT&RS software you also get access to an award winning Course Builder tool. Our LCP or GECBTS Specialists can coach you on how to easily design effective course curriculum by using a simple process that includes a curriculum body of knowledge, learning objectives, synced assessment questions, etc. You can design, customize and build courses within just a couple of hours using our Course Builder tool. Easily upload full length movies, or 1 min snippet videos, make professional recordings, or upload existing content and easily add exam questions and answers in various formats. Our KT&RS software administration tools are the easiest to utilize and make training and instruction administration a breeze.

The screenshot displays the Course Builder software interface. On the left, a navigation sidebar features a logo with a crest and the name 'Smith'. Below the logo, the sidebar lists several menu items: 'Tracks', 'Course Catalog', 'Classrooms', 'The Quad', 'Reports', 'Members', 'Course Builder', 'Administration', 'Add Activity', 'Comment moderation', 'Content management', 'Unpublished Courses', and 'Campus settings'. The 'Administration' item is currently selected. The main content area is titled 'Build a new course' and includes the instruction: 'Create a new course by selecting the method you would like to use for creating the course below.' Four large, light-blue buttons are arranged in a 2x2 grid, each with an icon and a label: 'Upload a Video/Document' (with an upload icon), 'Make a Recording' (with a microphone icon), 'Use Existing Content' (with a document icon), and 'Instructor Led Course' (with an instructor and student icon). The top right corner of the interface shows a user profile for 'Douglas Miner' and notification icons. The footer contains the text 'Copyright © 2020 ej4, LLC.' and 'Support | Privacy Policy'.

Becoming a Great Leader: Leadership and Power

How do leaders get their followers? To get the answer, you have to understand the relationship between Leadership and Power. Power is defined as "the ability to do something in a particular way." The word "POWER" suggest a very dictatorial, do it "my way or the highway" style of leadership. In most situations, this autocratic style doesn't work. So which leadership style DOES work?

Becoming a Great Leader: Motivational Leadership

So what makes a great motivational leader? You have to be able to recognize the motivational truths in your employees. You may learn that not everybody is completely unmotivated.
